GOV	VERNING STAKEHOLDER RELATIONSHIPS
King	g III Principle 8.1 –
	8.1.1	The gap between stakeholders' perceptions and the performance of the company should be managed and measured to enhance or protect the company's reputation.	Stakeholder communications are addressed in the Sustainability report. Management interacts regularly with major stakeholders and these matters are reported on and addressed by the board.
	8.1.2	The company's reputation and its linkage with stakeholders' relationship should be a regular board agenda item.	The Primeserv Pledge as well as the Code of Ethics address this aspect and are regularly considered by the board.
	8.1.3	The board should identify important stakeholder groupings.	Stakeholders have been identified in the Sustainability report which is incorporated into the Integrated Annual Report and approved for publication by the Board.
King III Principle 8.2 – The board should delegate to management to proactively deal with stakeholder relationships
	8.2.1	Management should develop a strategy and formulate policies for the management of relationships with each stakeholder grouping.	Refer the Sustainability report
	8.2.2	The board should consider whether it is appropriate to publish its stakeholder policies.	Partially applied
	8.2.3	The board should oversee the establishment of mechanisms and processes that support stakeholders in constructive engagement with the company.	Partially applied.
	8.2.4	The board should encourage shareholders to attend AGMs.	The notice of annual general meeting is included in the Integrated Annual Report, in the Summarised Financial Report as well as being publicised on SENS.
	8.2.5	The board should consider not only formal but also informal, processes for interaction with the company's stakeholders.	Refer the Sustainability report
		The board should disclose in its integrated report the nature of the company's dealings with stakeholders and the outcomes of these dealings.	Refer the Sustainability report
King	8.3.1	The board should strive to achieve the appropriate balance between its various stakeholder groupings, in the best interests of the comparts should take account of the legitimate interest and expectations of its stakeholders in its decision-making in the best interests of the company.	Refer to the Corporate Governance section of the Integrated Annual Report
King	King III Principle 8.4 – Companies should ensure the equitable treatment of shareholders
	8.4.1	There must be equitable treatment of all holders of the same class of shares issued.	Applied
	8.4.2	The board should ensure that minority shareholders are protected.	The Company is required to comply with legislation as well as the JSE Listings Requirements, both of which address the protection of minorities.
King	g III Principle 8.5 –	Transparent and effective communication with stakeholders is essential for building and maintaining their trust and confidence
	8.5.1	Complete, timely, relevant, accurate, honest and accessible information should be provided by the company to its stakeholders whilst having regard to legal and strategic considerations.	Refer the Sustainability report
	8.5.2	Communication with stakeholders should be in clear and understandable language.	Refer the Sustainability report
	8.5.3	The board should adopt communication guidelines that support a responsible communication programme.	Refer the Sustainability report
	8.5.4	The board should consider disclosing in the integrated report the number and reasons for refusal of requests of information that were lodged with the company in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000	No requests were received therefore there is none to be reported.
King		The board should ensure that disputes are resolved as effectively, efficiently and expeditiously as possible
Dispute resolution
	8.6.1	The board should adopt formal dispute resolution processes for internal and external disputes.	Contracts drawn up by the company include specific provisions dealing with disputes.
