King III Principle 1.2 – The board should ensure the company is and is seen to be a responsible corporate citizer

	The board should:
1.2.1	consider not only financial performance but also the impact of the company's operations on society and the environment;	The Group's operations do not pose a risk to the environment and therefore the impact of operations on the environment has not been measured as it is considered to be immaterial. The Group is of the view that its impact on society is positive, given that the Group focusses on vocational training and new employment through its operating divisions.
1.2.2	protect, enhance and invest in the well being of the economy, society and the environment;	Primeserv is proud of the direct and indirect contributions it makes and especially the CSI initiatives.
1.2.3	ensure that the company's performance and interactions with stakeholders is guided by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights;	The Board is particular about corporate governance and compliance with legislation, with these matters being part of the standing agenda and is focussed on transparency and proper disclosure, not only in regard to shareholders, but to all stakeholders, including employees and clients. A dedicated Social and Ethics Committee, with its own charter, has been established.
1.2.4	ensure that collaborative efforts with stakeholders are embarked upon to promote ethical conduct and good corporate citizenship;	The Group has a documented Code of Ethics that defines the conduct expected.
1.2.5	ensure that measurable corporate citizenship programmes are implemented; and	Corporate citizenship is addressed as part of the staff induction programmes conducted for all new employees. The Group also ensures that it meets relevant measures for Corporate Social Investment and enterprise development in its B-BBEE initiatives.
1.2.6	ensure that management develops corporate citizenship policies.	As above

INTERNAL AUDIT

King III Principle 7.1 – The board should ensure that there is an effective risk-based internal audi

The nee	he need for and role of internal audit
7.1.1	Companies should establish an internal audit function.	The Group has assessed the benefits and costs of an internal audit function and has concluded that given the systems of internal control, no significant benefit will arise by the creation of a separate internal audit function. Internal resources are used in specific instances as required.
7.1.2	Internal audit should perform the following functions:
7.1.2.1	evaluate the company's governance processes;	Refer 7.1.1 above
7.1.2.2	perform an objective assessment of the effectiveness of risk management and the internal control framework;	Refer 7.1.1 above
7.1.2.3	systematically analyse and evaluate business processes and associated controls; and	Refer 7.1.1 above
7.1.2.4	provide a source of information as appropriate, regarding instances of fraud, corruption, unethical behaviour and irregularities.	Refer 7.1.1 above
7.1.3	An internal audit charter should be defined and approved by the board	Refer 7.1.1 above
7.1.4	The internal audit function should adhere to the IIA Standards and code of ethics	Refer 7.1.1 above

King III Principle 7.3 - Internal audit should provide a written assessment of the effectiveness of the company's system of internal controls and risk management

7.3.1	Internal audit should form an integral part of the combined assurance model as internal assurance provider.	Refer 7.2.1 above
7.3.2	Internal controls should be established not only over financial matters, but also operational, compliance and sustainability issues.	Refer 7.2.1 above
7.3.3	Companies should maintain an effective governance, risk management and internal control framework.	Refer 7.2.1 above
7.3.4	Management should specify the elements of the control framework.	Refer 7.2.1 above
7.3.5	Internal audit should provide a written assessment of the system of internal controls and risk management to the board.	Refer 7.2.1 above
